1 Background

UNSW Global is committed to delivering a high standard of education and training services to all of its students. One way that UNSW Global fulfils this commitment is by ensuring that all students (both domestic and international) have access to a robust and fair complaints and appeals process.

Additionally, UNSW Global has obligations under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (ESOS Act).

The ESOS Act regulates the delivery of education and training courses to overseas students who come to Australia to study on a student visa. One of the functions of the ESOS Act is to set up a National Code which provides standards for all registered providers including UNSW Global.

Standard 10 of the National Code requires UNSW Global to have complaints and appeals processes that are independent, easily and immediately accessible and inexpensive for the parties involved.

2 Purpose

This policy explains how UNSW Global handles complaints and appeals made by UNSW Global students or applicants. It contains the process to be followed by the students or applicants if they wish to make a complaint or appeal a decision.

3 Scope

Subject to the exclusions outlined in this section, this policy applies to:

- (a) UNSW Global, its employees and contractors;
- (b) all UNSW Global students who have accepted UNSW Global Conditions of Enrolment and paid the first instalment of their fees;
- (c) all applicants who formally applied to be enrolled at UNSW Global; and
- (d) any third party providing services on UNSW Global's behalf to UNSW Global students or applicants

This policy does not apply to:

- (a) UNSW Diploma students (please refer to UNSW's Complaint Management Policy framework)
- (b) Third Party Test Candidates (a Third Party Test Candidate who wishes to lodge a Complaint should refer to the Third Party Test Day Complaints Procedure).

5 Policy Statement

UNSW Global is committed to complaint and appeal processes which help ensure that UNSW Global students have a fulfilling and rewarding learning experience.

5.1 UNSW Global's Commitment to Procedural Fairness

The following principles apply to the complaint and appeal processes set out in this policy:

- (a) where possible and appropriate, Complaints are handled informally by the original decision maker, Customer Service or a Student Adviser;
- (b) all Complaints and Appeals are finalised within a reasonable timeframe, taking into consideration factors such as the length of the UNSW Global student's visa and the student's enrolment in future subjects and/or programs, where applicable;

- (c) the principles of procedural fairness and natural justice apply to all Complaints and Appeals;
- (d) where Complaints are about a person's behaviour, all parties involved in the Complaint or Appeal must maintain confidentiality about the complaint or appeal;
- (e) notes and documentation are kept at all stages of the Formal Review and Internal Appeal Process (Stages 2 and 3) including records of meetings, discussions and actions proposed or taken;
- (f) information and records about a Complaint are confidential and should only be disclosed to staff of UNSW Global or UNSW staff with direct involvement in the process to enable proper investigation of the matter. However, UNSW Global may disclose records about a Complaint to its legal advisers, insurers and, if necessary, to an external agency;
- (g) all Complainants who seek a Formal Review or an Internal Appeal under Stages 2 and 3, will be provided with a written statement of the outcome of their complaint or appeal, including the reasons for the decision; and
- (h) at any stage a Complainant may decide to withdraw a Complaint or an Appeal. Where the Stage 2: Formal Review Process or the Stage 3: Internal Appeal Process is underway, any withdrawal must be in writing (this may be by email). In most instances UNSW Global will then deem the Complaint or Appeal resolved.

5.2 Complainants' Rights Under This Policy

All Complainants accessing the Complaints and Appeals processes set out in this policy can expect the following:

- (a) there is no direct cost to a Complainant for making a Complaint or requesting an Appeal;
- (b) Complainants will not suffer any reprisal as a result of lodging a Complaint or an Appeal;
- (c) Complainants may be accompanied by a support person during the Complaints and Appeals process;
- (d) a UNSW Global Student's enrolment will be maintained while the Complaint and Appeal process is ongoing; and
- (e) Complainants may choose to have their Complaint reviewed by an external complaint handling body (see section 7.4).

5.3 Complainants' Obligations Under This Policy

Similarly, Complainants who engage in the Complaints and Appeals process set out in this policy are expected to:

- (a) act in good faith;
- (b) avoid making Vexatious Complaints;
- (c) provide proper documentation where required;
- (d) meet timeframes stipulated under this policy; and
- (e) maintain confidentiality where a Complaint is about a person's behaviour (see section 6.2 below).

6 Types of Complaints

There are three types of Complaints within the scope of this policy:

6.1 Complaints About Academic Decisions and Matters

Students may make a Complaint about academic decisions and matters where any of the following apply:

- (a) the Complaint relates to a lack of procedural fairness or inconsistent application of UNSW Global policy or procedure; or
- (b) the UNSW Global Student does not consider the matter has been satisfactorily resolved under the relevant UNSW Global policy or procedure, for example, they are not happy with the outcome of their request for a remark, or the UNSW Global Student does not believe they should have received a letter indicating UNSW Global's intention to report the UNSW Global Student to the DIBP for unsatisfactory academic progress or attendance.

6.2 Complaints About a Person's Behaviour

Complainants may make a Complaint relating to the behaviour of:

- (a) other UNSW Global Students of or applicants to UNSW Global;
- (b) academic staff (including contract staff and guest lecturers);
- (c) professional and technical staff (including casual and contract staff); and
- (d) people external to UNSW Global with whom UNSW Global Students interact as part of a program of studies.

Where UNSW Global considers that the behaviour complained about may amount to misconduct or serious misconduct, other agreements, laws and policies, such as the Student Misconduct Policy, will also apply.

6.3 Complaints About Administration or Process

Complainants may make a Complaint relating to administrative issues or processes including Complaints about the inconsistent application of UNSW Global policy or procedure, denial of procedural fairness, failure to provide rights and incorrect advice leading to detriment. Examples include: any Complaints about administrative processes such as changes to enrolment, classes or program stream.

7 Complaints and Appeals Process

In most circumstances Complaints from UNSW Global Students follow a four stage process:

7.1 Stage 1: Informal Complaint Process

This approach is suitable for straightforward issues that are urgent but not serious, or administrative in nature. Complainants are encouraged to attempt to resolve their Complaint informally by getting in touch with the original decision maker, Customer Service or a Student Adviser.

Stage 1: Informal Complaints are not generally made in writing.

Examples of informal Complaints include:

- late return of assessment results
 - disagreement over marks
 - teacher quality feedback
 - wrong information provided by staff
 - wrong COE issued
 - wrong attendance recorded
 - customer service feedback
 - class and timetabling changes
 - facilities/Wi-Fi Complaints
 - Complaints about homestay providers
 - Complaints about airport pickups

7.2 Stage 2: Formal Review Process

To be used where the Stage 1: Informal Complaint Process does not resolve the Complaint or in the case of overseas UNSW Global Students, the UNSW Global Student has received a written notification from UNSW Global, such as a letter indicating an intention to report the UNSW Global Student to the DIBP.

Stage 2: Formal Reviews must be requested in writing.

Examples of Complaints that may be submitted to formal review:

- incorrect issuing of intention to report
 - refusal to issue a release letter
 - refusal to change stream
 - all unresolved informal Complaints
 - refusal of repeat request
 - bullying and harassment
 - decision to cancel enrolment
 - refusal to issue a refund
 - refusal to allow leave of absence

7.3 Stage 3: Internal Appeal Process

An Appellant may appeal a decision made in the Stage 2: Formal Review Process or any decision or outcome arising from student misconduct.

Appeals may be made on the grounds of lack of procedural fairness only. Procedural fairness, also known as natural justice, is a principle of law concerned with the procedures used by the decision maker, rather than the outcome reached.

There is no right to appeal the merits of the decision. In other words, an Appellant has no right of appeal simply because they do not agree with the decision.

Stage 3: Internal Appeals must be made in writing.

If the outcome of the Appeal (internal or external) is favourable to the Appellant, UNSW Global will implement any decision and/or corrective action required.

7.4 Stage 4: External Appeal Process

An Appellant may lodge and Appeal with the relevant external agency, a decision made in the Stage 3: Internal Appeal Process, or otherwise at any point during the internal Complaints and Appeals process. Appellants should be aware that external agencies may require them to have lodged a Complaint or Appeal with UNSW Global before they become involved.

Appellants should also be aware that there is more than one external body that deals with Complaints and Appeals from UNSW Global Appellants and they should take care to direct their Complaint or Appeal to the correct external body (see section 9 below). Appellants should visit the websites of the external bodies or contact the external agency directly if they have any questions or require more information.

When an external Appeal is lodged by an overseas UNSW Global Student against the UNSW Global's decision to report the overseas UNSW Global Student for unsatisfactory course progress or attendance, UNSW Global will maintain the overseas UNSW Global Student's enrolment and not report the UNSW Global Student for unsatisfactory progress or attendance until the external Appeal process is complete.

8 How to Make a Complaint or Appeal

You must:

1. Email a Stage 3: Internal Appeal Form to complaintsandconduct@unswglobal.unsw.edu.au. Hardcopy forms are also available from, and may be submitted to, the Student Services Centre.

Stage 4: External Appeal Process

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the internal complaints and appeals process you may refer the matter to an external body for an independent review (see section 9 below).

If you commence an external appeal, so that your enrolment can be maintained during the appeal process, you must inform us in writing by emailing complaintsandconduct@unswglobal.unsw.edu.au.
