1 Background and purpose

UNSW Global is committed to providing a safe and healthy environment for workers (staff, volunteers and contractors) and visitors (including UNSW Global students) to the workplace. This policy defines the principles of this commitment and UNSW Global's approach to the continuous improvement of health and safety in the workplace.

2 Definitions

Health and Safety Committee means the committee at UNSW Global comprising elected employees for the purpose of consulting on workplace, health and safety matters.

PCBU means a Person Conducting a Business or Undertaking.

UNSW means the University of New South Wales.

WHS means work health and safety.

WHS Act means the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (NSW).

WHS Management System means UNSW Global's Work Health and Safety Management System including but not limited to policies, procedures and guides.

WHS Regulation means the Work Health and Safety Regulations 2011 (NSW).

3 Scope

This policy applies to all UNSW Global workers (staff, volunteers and contractors) and visitors to UNSW Global's premises.

For UNSW Global workers, this policy applies to all premises where workers engage in activities related to UNSW Global including locations outside of UNSW Global's premises and during travel on behalf of UNSW Global. For visitors, this policy applies at UNSW Global premises or while participating in authorised UNSW Global activities.

Workers and visitors must also comply with UNSW's Health and Safety Policy and instructions when attending UNSW's premises, such as the Kensington campus. See "Related Policies and Procedures" below for further information.

4 Legal and policy framework

As a 'person conducting a business or undertaking' (PCBU) pursuant to the Work Health and Safety Act 2011 (WHS Act), UNSW Global is committed to ensuring that it complies with the WHS Act and other relevant legislation and industry standards. UNSW Global may also modify its workplace from time to time in a manner consistent with public health requirements pursuant to the Public Health Act (NSW).

All workers and visitors must comply with this policy and any other reasonable instruction, policy or procedure communicated from time to time by UNSW Global. Failure to follow safe systems of work, misuse of health and safety equipment, bypassing of a risk control measure or interfering with another person's efforts to work safely, may infringe the WHS Act framework. Non-compliance will be managed pursuant to the Code of Conduct.

5 Objectives

Pursuant to the WHS Act, UNSW Global has duties to ensure, as far as is reasonably practicable:

- (a) the provision and maintenance of a work environment without risks to health and safety;
- (b) the provision and maintenance of safe plant and structures;
- (c) the provision and maintenance of safe systems of work;
- (d) the safe use, handling, and storage of plant, structures and substances;
- (e) the provision of adequate facilities for the welfare at work of workers in carrying out work for the business or undertaking, including ensuring access to those facilities;
- (f) the provision of any information, training, instruction or supervision that is necessary to protect all persons from risks to their health and safety arising from work carried out as part UNSW Global's activities; and
- (g) that the health of workers and the conditions at the workplace are monitored for the purpose of preventing illness or injury of workers arising from the conduct of UNSW Global (to the extent permitted by privacy law).

UNSW Global will also seek to continually improve its WHS systems, materials and performance.

6 Consultation

- (a) UNSW Global is committed to consultation, co-operation and co-ordination between management and workers as far as reasonably practicable and in accordance with the WHS Act;
- (b) Consultation will be undertaken in accordance with UNSW Global's WHS Consultation Procedure; and

7 Implementation

The strategies to implement this policy include:

- (a) Active involvement and commitment of management and the Executive Team;
- (b) The ongoing provision of a Health and Safety Committee as required by the WHS Act;
- (c) Identification and control of hazards;
- (d) Investigation and reporting of all accidents and dangerous incidents;

- (e) Consult with workers on health and safety matters as required by the WHS Act;
- (f) Provision of first aid and emergency procedures;
- (g) Provision of information, training and supervision as necessary for safety; and
- (h) Ongoing review and improvement of the WHS Management System.

8 Communication

This policy will be publicly accessible on UNSW Global's website and a copy will be placed on common area noticeboards in UNSW Global workplaces. The policy is also made available on the staff intranet.

9 Responsibilities
