

UNSW Diploma for International Students 2022 Tuition Fees

Amounts are per unit of credit (UOC). To calculate the fee for a course, refer to the course prefix and the tuition fee for the year of commencement in the Diploma, then multiply by the UOC value of the course.

Example 1: An international student is enrolling in DPGE1001 (Communication and Academic Literacy), which has a value of 4 UOC.

The fee for this course will be $$815 \times 4 = $3,260$

Example 2: An international Diploma in Engineering, Science or Computer Science student may choose to pay the full amount of their tuition fee prior to the first census date. The program contains 7 DPST courses with a UOC value of 42, and 3 DPGE courses totalling 6 UOC.

The approximate fee for this program will be $($815 \times 42) + ($815 \times 6) = $39,120$

Example 3: An international Diploma in Business student may choose to pay the full amount of their tuition fee prior to the first census date. The program contains 8 DPBS courses with a UOC value of 48, and 3 DPGE courses totalling 6 UOC.
